

Lorraine Johnson, JD, MBA

Lorraine Johnson chairs the PCORnet Patient Council. She is also the patient representative of both the PCORnet Steering and Executive Committees as well as a member of the Patient Engagement Advisory Panel of the Patient Centered Outcomes Research Institute. She has spoken about PCORI both nationally and internationally and provided information to researchers seeking PCORI grants. She has been engaged in patient and consumer issues locally, nationally and internationally for the past ten years, speaking for example at government hearings, consensus hearings, and at international conferences. She is the Co-

Chair of the Steering Committee of Consumers United for Evidence-Based Healthcare (CUE), a national coalition of approximately 40 consumer advocacy organizations and serves as a consumer peer reviewer for Cochrane Collaboration evidence-based protocols and reviews. She is the Executive Director of LymeDisease.org , a non-profit 501(c)(3) that serves the patient community nationally through advocacy, education and research.
